THOUGHTS OF THE SEASON :

Ok, its Spring..I don't have much more news so I am going to just ramble a bit. Member, Bob Peters called to say he's tired of going to estate sales etc. where the seller has had their photo. stuff priced by someone who picked the highest price ever charged for said item and was told not to come down one dollar. Bob's plea... when you price for people be realistic and give the seller a RANGE of price to work from...sounds like there are some interesting shows comming up! BUT, don't forget our PSPCS 12th show on Saturday, April 25th. Please take a few more flyers at the meeting and ~~on~~ talk it up..lets make this the best one so far...Bill Adams has had to resign as sec. of PSPCS and Shirley Sparrow has graciously said she will take over. Thank you Bill for a great job..Thank you Shirley for a great job to come. Can you tell I am doing this at midnight?
